

DEAN LAING SPEAKS AT SEMINAR

On November 29, 2018 Dean Laing spoke on the topic of “Procedural Issues in Litigation” at a seminar presented by the State Bar of Wisconsin on “Trending Topics in Business Litigation 2018.” The panel consisted of some of the top civil litigators in Wisconsin, and the seminar was very well attended. Mr. Laing spoke on various subjects, including the use of errata sheets following depositions, sequestration of persons from depositions, and use of general objections in discovery responses.

Mr. Laing has been a speaker at over 30 legal seminars, authored over 40 journal articles and book chapters, and been involved as counsel in over 75 published/reported decisions. Over the years, Mr. Laing has received numerous recognitions for his legal work, including being selected four times as one of the “Top 10 Lawyers” in Wisconsin by Super Lawyers; three times as “Lawyer of the Year in Wisconsin” by The Best Lawyers in America; and one time as a “Leader in the Law” by the Wisconsin Law Journal.
