FOUNDER DINO ANTONOPOULOS OF ANTONOPOULOS LEGAL GROUP JOINS O'NEIL CANNON

O'Neil Cannon is pleased to announce that Dino Antonopoulos, founder of Antonopoulos Legal Group, is bringing ALG's successful practice to O'Neil Cannon. Antonopoulos, a highly respected attorney known for his client-centered approach and dedication, will be a great addition to O'Neil Cannon's Business and Real Estate Practice Groups.

With almost 20 years in the legal profession, Antonopoulos has built a strong reputation as a corporate and real estate transactional attorney with excellent communication skills, strong client advocacy, and a track record of favorable results. He began his legal career representing closely held businesses and financial institutions in complex commercial litigation and handling high-stakes jury trials involving seven-figure disputes. This foundation in litigation has enriched Antonopoulos's transactional work, particularly in business, real estate, and finance transactions.

At O'Neil Cannon, Antonopoulos will continue representing financial institutions and closely held businesses across a wide range of industries, including manufacturing, distribution, retail, construction, and real estate. In his role as outside general counsel, he provides in-depth advisory and consulting services, offering strategic and practical solutions tailored to each client's unique challenges. Antonopoulos is committed to upholding the same client-first values he established at ALG and looks forward to collaborating with O'Neil Cannon's team.
