

O'NEIL CANNON WELCOMES ATTORNEY JACK MCNALLY

O'Neil Cannon is pleased to announce that John "Jack" McNally has joined the firm as a member of its Litigation and Trust, Estates and Succession Planning Practice Groups. McNally concentrates his practice on probate and trust litigation, representing individuals, families, and businesses in disputes involving estates, fiduciary obligations, and commercial matters. Prior to joining the firm, McNally served as an Assistant City Attorney for the City of Milwaukee, where he handled business licensing litigation and defended claims against the city. His background in public service brings practical courtroom experience and a well-developed understanding of regulatory and municipal issues.

O'Neil Cannon, founded in Milwaukee in 1973, is a full-service law firm focused on meeting the diverse legal needs of businesses and their owners. Our experienced attorneys work with businesses at every stage of the business life cycle, helping them start, grow, and successfully transition. We also represent businesses and individuals in a wide range of other matters, including litigation, tax and estate planning, and family law. FORMER O'NEIL CANNON ATTORNEYS DEVOTED TO PUBLIC SERVICE

A number of former O'Neil Cannon attorneys have devoted a substantial portion of their professional careers to public service after leaving the firm. Those attorneys include the following:

Honorable Thomas Barrett. The Honorable Thomas Barrett served in the Wisconsin State Assembly from 1984 to 1989, the Wisconsin Senate from 1989 to 1993, and the U.S. House of Representatives from 1993 to 2003. In 2004, Barrett became mayor of the City of Milwaukee and remained in that position until 2021, following which he was appointed by the President of the United States to serve as the U.S. Ambassador to Luxembourg from 2022 to 2025. Barrett joined O'Neil Cannon after clerking for a federal judge following graduation from law school and practiced on the Litigation Team.

Justice Annette Ziegler. Justice Annette Ziegler served as a judge of the Washington County Circuit Court from 1997 to 2007 and has served as a justice of the Wisconsin

Supreme Court from 2007 to the present. She served as the Chief Justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court from 2021 to 2025. Justice Ziegler joined O'Neil Cannon following graduation from law school and practiced on the Litigation Team.

Honorable David Borowski. The Honorable David Borowski has served as a judge of the Milwaukee County Circuit Court since 2003. Judge Borowski joined O'Neil Cannon following graduation from law school and practiced on the Litigation Team.

Honorable Laura Lavey. The Honorable Laura Lavey has served as a judge of the Fond du Lac County Circuit Court since 2022. Judge Lavey joined O'Neil Cannon following graduation from law school and practiced on the Litigation Team.

O'Neil Cannon congratulates these four esteemed former colleagues and thanks them for all of their years of public service. O'Neil Cannon is proud to call them alumni of the firm.

O'NEIL CANNON ADDS FOUR SHAREHOLDERS

O'Neil Cannon is pleased to announce that Christina Ruud, Cate Heerey, Nancy Wilson, and Max Stephenson were elected as shareholders of the firm.

Each attorney has built a strong practice within their respective areas. Ruud advises clients on commercial real estate transactions and development matters. Heerey counsels businesses and owners on a range of corporate and transactional issues. Wilson focuses on tax and estate planning for individuals, families, and business owners. Stephenson represents clients in family law matters, advising individuals and families on a range of domestic relations issues.

Please join us in congratulating them on this well-deserved achievement.

GRANT KILLORAN ELECTED WISCONSIN STATE BAR DELEGATE TO THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Grant Killoran was recently elected to serve as the Wisconsin State Delegate to the American Bar Association.

State Delegates are elected by the ABA members in a given state and maintain relationships between state and local bars and the ABA. State Delegates serve as members of the ABA's Nominating Committee and vote to elect ABA officers and most members of the ABA Board of Governors. Additionally, State Delegates serve as Chair of their state's Delegation to the ABA House of Delegates, the Association's governing and policy-making body structured to reflect the legal profession in the United States.

Grant previously served as a member of the ABA Board of Governors from 2021-2024 and as a member of the ABA House of Delegates from 1997-1999, 2003-2009, and 2014-2024.

Grant is a shareholder and past Chair of O'Neil Cannon's Litigation Practice Group. He has diverse trial experience, focusing on complex business and health care disputes.

Super Lawyers is a national rating service that rates attorneys in all 50 states. The selection process utilized by Super Lawyers is multi-phased and includes independent research, peer nominations, and peer evaluations. One court recently had this to say about Super Lawyers:

“[T]he selection procedures employed by [Super Lawyers] are very sophisticated, comprehensive, and complex. It is abundantly clear . . . that [Super Lawyers does] not permit a lawyer to buy one’s way onto the list, nor is there any requirement for the purchase of any product for inclusion in the lists or any quid pro quo of any kind or nature associated with the evaluation and listing of an attorney or in the subsequent advertising of one’s inclusion in the lists.”

We are proud to be one of the few firms in Wisconsin with more than 50% of its attorneys recognized by Super Lawyers.
