ATTORNEY GREG LYONS NAMED FELLOW WITH THE AMERICAN BAR FOUNDATION

Attorney Greg Lyons was recently named a Fellow with the American Bar Foundation, a membership that is limited to one-third of one percent of the lawyers in America.

The Fellows of the American Bar Foundation is a global honorary society of attorneys, judges, law faculty, and legal scholars whose public and private careers have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the highest principles of the legal profession and the welfare of their communities. Established in 1955, the Fellows support the research of the American Bar Foundation and currently has a membership totaling over 14,000 individuals across the globe. Membership in the Fellows is limited to one percent of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction.

The American Bar Foundation is among the world's leading research institutes for the empirical and interdisciplinary study of law. An independent, nonprofit organization for more than 65 years, it seeks to advance the understanding and improvement of law through research projects on the most pressing issues facing the legal system in the United States and around the world today. It seeks to expand knowledge and advance justice through innovative, interdisciplinary, and rigorous empirical research on law, legal processes, and legal institutions. Its research findings are published in a wide range of forums, including leading academic journals, law reviews, and academic and commercial presses.

ATTORNEYS CHRISTA WITTENBERG AND DEAN LAING PUBLISHED IN THE WISCONSIN LAWYER

Attorneys Christa Wittenberg and Dean Laing authored an article in the Wisconsin Lawyer magazine, entitled "A Litigation's Reprise: Strategies for Requesting Attorney Fees." Their article discusses strategy considerations for litigants requesting attorneys' fees (or objecting to requests for attorneys' fees) after the merits of the case have been resolved. As noted in the article, sometimes disputes over attorneys' fees can be just as contentious as the underlying dispute, and strong lawyering can have a significant impact.
