

RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF THE TOP LAW FIRMS IN WISCONSIN BY SUPER LAWYERS

O'Neil, Cannon, Hollman, DeJong and Laing is pleased to be selected for inclusion in the 2015 Super Lawyers Business Edition. The Top firms were chosen based on the number of attorneys within the firm who were selected to the 2014 or 2015 Super Lawyers list in business practice areas, as well as a combination of metrics indicating the quality of those attorneys. Quality factors that were considered included the number of years selected to the list, inclusion on a top list, and their average blue ribbon panel scores.

The following attorneys recognized by Super Lawyers and featured in the 2015 Annual Directory of the nation's top attorneys in business and transactions practice areas include:

- James G. DeJong - Mergers and Acquisitions
- Seth E. Dizard - Creditor Debtor Rights
- Peter J. Faust - Mergers and Acquisitions
- John G. Gehringer - Real Estate
- Joseph E. Gumina - Employment and Labor
- Gregory W. Lyons - Business Litigation
- Patrick G. McBride - Business Litigation
- Joseph D. Newbold - Business Litigation
- Chad J. Richter - Business/Corporate
- John R. Schreiber - Creditor Debtor Rights
- Jason R. Scoby - Mergers and Acquisitions

TWENTY ATTORNEYS ELECTED TO THE WISCONSIN SUPER LAWYERS LISTS

O'Neil Cannon is proud to announce that the following sixteen attorneys were selected for inclusion on the Super Lawyers list, which is limited to 5% of all Wisconsin attorneys, as published in the December 2015 Edition of Milwaukee Magazine and the Wisconsin Super Lawyers Magazine:

The Firm is proud to further announce that Dean Laing, Seth Dizard, and Peter Faust were selected by Super Lawyers as “Top 50 Attorneys” in Wisconsin and “Top 25 Attorneys” in the Milwaukee Area. Dean is one of only 10 attorneys out of over 15,000 attorneys in Wisconsin—and the only commercial litigator—to be selected to The Top 50 list for all 10 years.

Super Lawyers is a national rating service that rates attorneys in all 50 states. The selection process is multi-phased and includes independent research, peer nominations, and peer evaluations. As part of its process, Super Lawyers surveyed more than 15,000 attorneys and judges in Wisconsin, looking for the best attorneys in the State.

The New Jersey Supreme Court recently upheld the findings of a Special Master who made the following determinations about Super Lawyers:

“[T]he selection procedures employed by [Super Lawyers] are very sophisticated, comprehensive and complex.

It is absolutely clear... that [Super Lawyers does] not permit a lawyer to buy one’s way onto the list, nor is there any requirement for the purchase of any product for inclusion in the lists or any quid pro quo of any kind or nature associated with the evaluation and listing of an attorney or in the subsequent advertising of one’s inclusion in the lists.”

MORE HONORS FOR OUR ATTORNEYS

The new lists of Super Lawyers® and Rising Stars are out and O'Neil Cannon is proud to announce that 12 (approximately 40%) of our lawyers made the lists. The lists are published in the December 2011 edition of Milwaukee Magazine. Our lawyers making the list are:

Super Lawyers

- James G. DeJong
- Seth E. Dizard
- Peter J. Faust
- John G. Gehringer
- Dean P. Laing
- Gregory W. Lyons
- Patrick G. McBride

Rising Stars

- Chad J. Richter
- John R. Schreiber
- Jason R. Scoby

The lists of Super Lawyers and Rising Stars are limited to 5% and 2.5%, respectively, of the lawyers practicing in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee Magazine also published lists of the Top 50 Lawyers in Wisconsin and the Top 25 Lawyers in the Milwaukee area, and both Mr. Laing and Mr. Faust made those lists as well. This is the sixth consecutive year that Mr. Laing has made the list of the Top 50 Lawyers in Wisconsin, making him the only commercial litigator in Wisconsin to have done so.

As described in the Milwaukee Magazine article, the process used for assembling the Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists is as follows:

First, we ask lawyers across the state to name the top attorneys they've personally observed in action. We also perform our own research to find outstanding attorneys who may have been overlooked by their peers. Once we have our candidate pool assembled, we access the background, credentials and experience of each lawyer. Specifically, we look at 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement—things like experience, verdicts and settlements, transactions, clients, honors and awards.

The lawyers are then evaluated by a blue ribbon panel of peers within their primary area of practice. Before final selections are made, we divide the lawyers by firm size and chose the top lawyers from each group until we have a list that represents 5 percent of the lawyers in the state (Rising Stars lists are limited to 2.5 percent).

The list of Top 50 Lawyers in Wisconsin is comprised of the 50 lawyers in Wisconsin receiving the highest point totals in the nomination, research and blue ribbon review process. The list of Top 25 Lawyers in the Milwaukee area consists of the 25 lawyers in the Milwaukee area receiving the highest point totals in that same process.

ATTORNEY JASON SCOBY QUOTED IN WISCONSIN LAW JOURNAL

Jason Scoby was recently quoted in the Wisconsin Law Journal in an article about the proposed Bucyrus-Caterpillar merger. The article, titled “Bucyrus Clears Hurdle in Merger Lawsuits,” describes the Jan. 19 decision by Judge Charles Clevert Jr. of the Eastern District Court of Wisconsin in which he denied plaintiff shareholders’ motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to prevent the shareholder vote to approve the merger. The excerpt containing Jason’s quote reads:

- Attorney Jason Scoby, chairman of the Business, Banking and Corporate Law Section of the Milwaukee Bar Association, pointed out that under relevant case law, the plaintiffs needed to satisfy three requirements: irreparable harm, inadequate traditional legal remedies and a likelihood of success on the merits.
- Scoby, of O’Neil, Cannon, Hollman, DeJong and Laing SC, Milwaukee, said the court clearly explained why the plaintiffs failed to satisfy any of the three requirements.
- “The court could’ve denied the plaintiffs’ motion based on the fact that they couldn’t satisfy the first requirement, that they faced irreparable harm if the injunction was not granted,” he said. “However, the court took care to also hold that the plaintiffs failed to satisfy the other two requirements.”
- In arriving at its decision, the court alluded to the Business Judgment Rule, Scoby said. That rule provides that a court will rarely substitute its own judgment for that of the corporation’s board when the board engaged in sufficient due diligence prior to arriving at its decision.

ATTORNEYS RANDY NASH AND JASON SCOBY

PUBLISH ARTICLE IN ABA'S HEALTH LAW LITIGATION NEWSLETTER

Randy Nash and Jason Scoby recently published an article in the Spring/Summer 2010 edition of the American Bar Association's Health Law Litigation newsletter entitled "New Rules Dramatically Affect Health Care Expert Witness Disclosures."

The article discusses the existing Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and a proposed change to Rule 26 involving the disclosure of expert witness draft reports and communications between the attorney and an expert witness in a case. This proposed rule change has the potential to impact expert witness disclosures before the federal courts. It is expected to go into effect on December 1, 2010.

Under the current rule, an expert witness's entire file with regard to the matter in litigation, including any drafts of the expert's report and any communications with the attorney, is discoverable by the opponent in the lawsuit.

The Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure has recommended that the current rule be amended, stating that the rule has caused "significant practical problems." The Committee described the problem as follows:

Lawyers and experts take elaborate steps to avoid creating any discoverable record and at the same time take elaborate steps to attempt to discover the other side's drafts and communications. The artificial and wasteful discovery-avoidance practices include lawyers hiring two sets of experts—one for consultation, to do the work and develop the opinions, and one to provide the testimony—to avoid creating a discoverable record of the collaborative interaction with the experts. The practices also include tortuous steps to avoid having an expert take any notes, make any record of preliminary analyses or opinions, or produce any draft report. Instead, the only record is a single, final report.

Recognizing these issues, many have sought to change the discovery rules. The proposed amendment to Rule 26 attempts to avoid disclosure of experts' draft reports and attorney/expert communications. The goal is to permit the attorney to communicate freely with the expert about the attorney's thoughts and opinions relating to the case without fear of those communications being discovered by opposing counsel. The Rule also aims to avoid the unnecessary costs caused by hiring multiple experts and to prevent attorneys from taking other intricate maneuvers to evade the discovery of communications or drafts of expert opinions.

The Supreme Court recently approved these amendments to Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. It is expected that Congress will approve the amended Rule, and if it does, the amended Rule 26 will go into effect on December 1, 2010.
