O’NEIL CANNON ADDS FOUR SHAREHOLDERS

O’Neil Cannon is pleased to announce that Christina Ruud, Cate Heerey, Nancy Wilson, and Max Stephenson were elected as shareholders of the firm.

Each attorney has built a strong practice within their respective areas. Ruud advises clients on commercial real estate transactions and development matters. Heerey counsels businesses and owners on a range of corporate and transactional issues. Wilson focuses on tax and estate planning for individuals, families, and business owners. Stephenson represents clients in family law matters, advising individuals and families on a range of domestic relations issues.

Please join us in congratulating them on this well-deserved achievement.

O’NEIL CANNON WELCOMES ATTORNEY MAX STEPHENSON

O’Neil Cannon is pleased to welcome Max Stephenson to its Family Law practice group. Stephenson helps clients navigate the legal and emotional complexities of family transitions, including divorce, child custody, paternity, post-judgment modifications, guardianships, and injunctions. Known for his approachable style and practical, personalized strategies, he also brings deep experience in LGBTQ+ family law. His commitment to clients and the community is reflected in his leadership and volunteer work with organizations such as the American Cancer Society and the LGBT Chamber of Wisconsin.

O’Neil Cannon, founded in Milwaukee in 1973, is a full-service law firm dedicated to serving the wide-ranging needs of businesses and their owners. We represent corporations, institutions, partnerships, and closely held companies at every stage of the business life cycle, helping them start, grow, and transition from one generation to the next. In addition to our strong focus on business law and civil litigation, we assist business owners with their personal legal needs, including tax and estate planning and family law.
